ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In compiling an information book of this scope, many people and agencies are contacted. Space does not permit listing everyone who helped, but we would like to thank the individual private schools, banks and savings & loans, health care centers, golf courses, shopping centers and major employers. We would like to offer a special thanks to the county and municipal officials of the many agencies we contacted. And a final thank you to the other sources sited in specific tables in the book.

MAJOR EMPLOYERS IN PALM BEACH COUNTY

The map on the opposite page depicts the average daily (24 hour) traffic counts for various points in Palm Beach County which are monitored on a regular basis. Information on the exact counter locations as well as "peak season" (January-February) and "non-peak season" (July-August) counts are available in a publication of the West Palm Beach Urban Study Area (WPBUSA). This may be obtained from the Area Planning Board of Palm Beach County. The date of the latest publication is February, 1978. This includes data for calendar year 1977. Counts from previous years are also available.
